

WASHINGTON METROPOLITAN AREA TRANSIT COMMISSION

WASHINGTON, DC

ORDER NO. 9824

IN THE MATTER OF:

Served August 11, 2006

Application of NUR CORPORATION for )	Case No. AP-2006-140
a Certificate of Authority -- ) Irregular Route Operations )

By application accepted for filing August 7, 2006, Nur Corporation, a District of Columbia entity, seeks a certificate of authority for irregular route operations in vehicles with a seating capacity of less than 16 persons only, including the driver.

Applicant proposes commencing operations with one van. Applicant proposes operating under a tariff containing rates for Medicaid transportation.

Applicant's comptroller, Mr. Alex Ojo, also serves as the comptroller of Simon & Miriam Corporation, which has applied for a certificate of authority in Case No. AP-2006-141. In addition, applicant shares the same street address with Simon & Miriam Corporation.

The Compact states that a carrier or any person controlling, controlled by, or under common control with a carrier shall obtain Commission approval to acquire control of another carrier that operates in the Metropolitan District through ownership of its stock or other means.<sup>1</sup> Approval may be granted if the Commission finds the acquisition is consistent with the public interest.<sup>2</sup> The public interest analysis focuses on the fitness of the acquiring party, the resulting competitive balance, and the interest of affected employees.<sup>3</sup>

Applicant will be directed to file a statement explaining the relationship between applicant and Simon & Miriam Corporation and explaining the anticipated effect on competition and employees if common control is approved.

This proceeding is hereby initiated to determine whether applicant is fit and whether the proposed transportation and common control are consistent with the public interest.
